

Bret Stahler

Bret is a native of Bellefontaine, Ohio and a graduate of Bellefontaine High School. He is the son of the late Paul 'Tall Paul' and Betty Stahler and has two older sisters, one of which is deceased.

Bret holds degrees in Wildlife management, Natural resource enforcement, Logistics Management, and Leadership and Ministry. A former park ranger supervisor and deputy sheriff, Bret was also an Internal Affairs Investigator for Hocking College and was a certified instructor for the Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy. He is also an Ordained Minister.

Bret retired from Honda of America in 2014 where he was a Packaging Engineer.

Bret was raised in Boggs' Lodge #292, DeGraff, Ohio, the fourth of five generations to be made Masons there. He is a second generation Antioch Shriner (Legacy Shriner). He belongs to Valley of Dayton AASR, Bellefontaine Commandry, Past President GLSCUA Clown Emeritus, Antioch Funster Director Emeritus, International Shrine Clown of the Year 1997, Clown Extraordinaire 2007.

Bret and Susan have four grandchildren who live in Kentucky along with son Kevin, who is also a Mason and Antioch Legacy Shriner.