It's Parade Season Again
See Photos Inside

From the Potentate

Ill. Sir Bryan Ogletree

Where has the time gone? We are six months into what is shaping up to be a wonderful year at Antioch. The ladies Martini Party was once again a huge success and our Parades are clicking off one by one with the weather cooperating so far with every parade.

We have a special meeting forthcoming this month to discuss the future of the Antioch Shrine Circus on July 28th at 7pm. Whether you are for, against or just not sure make your voice heard at this special meeting.

High Priest and Prophet Aaron Roberts has been working hard on tweaking the Sportsman's raffle this year to be held on Saturday November 8th at the Champaign County Fairgrounds. Tickets and Flyers are available at the Temple.

Last but not least, if you know of anyone looking to join our wonderful fraternity lets get their petitions in to be read as soon as possible. Our Fall ceremonial is just around the corner and is in honor of our own Jimmy Brewer. I know we can put together a great class and ceremonial in his honor. Hope everyone continues to have a fun, safe and enjoyable summer!

FROM THE FIRST LADY, AMY

What a great event! Our recent Martini Night, held during the Men's Leadership Meeting, was a huge success. The evening was filled with fantastic food, great drinks, and even better company. The music got people on their feet, and the dancing brought out plenty of smiles. Thank you to everyone who helped make it such a fun and memorable night.

Parade season is in full swing, and it's been wonderful seeing so many of you show up to support and represent Antioch Shrine. The energy at the parades and the afterglow parties has been incredible—let's keep it going strong all summer long! If you haven't picked one up yet, I still have some parade shirts available with all this year's parade dates listed on the back—get yours before they're gone!

Lastly, wishing everyone safe and enjoyable travels as we head down to Atlanta, Georgia for Imperial. Looking forward to seeing many of you there as we celebrate all that makes Shrine life so special.

BOBBIE BITS

By: Noble Tom "Totally Serious Journalist" Best

Dispatches from the Front Lines of Bobbie Buffoonery

This month's big revelation? Turns out Chief Rabban Kevin Smith and Noble Don Fodor are huge fans of the Uranus Fudge Factory in Anderson, Indiana. Their enthusiasm only slightly dipped when they discovered it's actually a fudge shop... and not, well, what the name enthusiastically implies. We'll leave the rest to your imagination—and maybe therapy.

A hearty slap on the fez goes out to Noble Richard Marker for his masterpiece in last month's Crier. Truly, a work of journalistic art. Pulitzer? No. But it didn't make us dumber, and that's a win.

Our monthly meeting (which, shocker, happened the first Monday of the month) featured not one but two notable moments:

1. Don Fodor reappeared from the void. We hadn't realized he was missing until he walked in, and then we weren't sure whether to applaud or ask if he was lost.
2. Illustrious Sir Gary Strawsburg Zoomed in from his secret lair (aka "doctor's orders"). When someone announced, "Gary's here," the room replied with a heartfelt and spontaneous, "Dammit!" A beautiful moment.

Ill Sir Bob Wagner, with all the gravitas of a man flicking a booger, used one finger to declare there was no old business. So we moved to "new" business—which, in true Bobbie fashion, turned out to be the same tired conversation about people not showing up and not telling anyone. Groundbreaking stuff. Someone suggested reading Robert's Rules of Order, but let's be honest—if we wanted rules, we wouldn't be Bobbies.

Parade season has officially begun, and so has our favorite tradition: Klutz Award Nominations! The trophy is currently MIA, presumably stolen by an envious hospital employee who wanted a piece of the glory after Ill Sir Strawsburg's ER adventure. In the meantime, he's promising a new, appropriately absurd replacement.

Nominees this month included:

- Joe Kimmerer, who took a spectacular dive at the Middletown Memorial Day parade and flopped around like a bass on hot asphalt.
- Deb Kinderdine, who baptized the parking lot with a gallon and a half of Bobbies red pop.
- Charlie Anderson, who, despite doctor's orders (and common sense), hit the ground to mop it up. Hero or lunatic? You decide.
- Josh Mann, who sacrificed his taillight assembly to the Parade Gods, scattering shards across half of Middletown.

And the winner...Noble Scott Beirise!

Scott went full Michael Bay: blew up a minibike, lost his Torq-A-Verter cover, sprouted an oil leak, destroyed his boots, and possibly altered the course of local weather. As Scott wisely said:

"Anybody can be average."

Stay weird, Bobbies.

Here we are in the patriotic month of July. As has been the practice for the past several years, the Gun Club is dark in July. The summer months are full of fun oriented gatherings of cook outs and beach destinations shared with family and friends. So, take a breather and slow down to appreciate the most important thing in our lives which is our loved ones and the dear friends who enrich our lives beyond compare. Of course, if possible, we will participate in any Antioch Shrine event on the calendar and extend the wish to all Nobles to have a wonderful summer. God bless America.

By Samantha Marcum, Maharanee

We participated in our first Middletown Shrine Club Car Show and we had a great time selling our baked goods and seeing all the classic and unique cars. For the months of July and August we will be dark so there will be no meetings. We are looking forward to our annual picnic hosted by Marge and Dave Reynolds and helping out with the Antioch Golf Outing. Elissa welcomes all ladies to become a member and to have fun with us. For more information or to find out what our monthly donation item is, contact Samantha Marcum at sgrebs423@gmail.com

By: H. Jeffery Shaw, Past President

The Greeters will not have a meeting in July or August. Our next meeting will not be until September. We will however, be having our annual picnic August 24th at 2pm at the Dayton Elks Club. Please let Jim Brewer know if you plan to attend.

By Noble Tom Hail

The Provost Guard are looking forward to the 4th of July Parade on Friday. Antioch parade units report to the Staging Area at Fairborn Plaza at 9:00am. We Provost will assist you in the lot to stage in line for correct pullout. Kickoff is at 10:00am. There will not be an Afterglow.

Then we are scheduled for the Annie Oakley Day Parade in Greenville on Saturday, July 26th with like times as Fairborn's arrival. Antioch parade units report at 9:00am and kickoff is at 10:00am. At the parade conclusion, the Darke County Shrine Club sponsors the Afterglow with a chicken cookout on the Fairgrounds. Nobles must have already made reservations last month so tickets are ready for pickup at the buffet area.

MOTOR CORP

By Noble Joseph A Everette, (LtCol Army Retired) Secretary

Miamisburg Spring Fest Parade was a great turnout for the motor corp. we wish the dune buggies were back on the road. We have a few for sale. See Gary Shifflett. We also have some bikes for sale as well. We are in need of a good noble to do Snoopy and ride on the Dog house and Snoopy. Look for boss hog and his white Cadillac in the very near future.

You can join the Motor Corp, come join us and after your first year we will pay for our uniforms if you remain active. Coming soon will be our new summer shirts, (free).

Remember some insurance expire last month look at your cards to see, if you have renewed bring a copy to the next parade and a copy of your Personal Auto Insurance along with insurance on the Parade Vehicle, to the Secretary or Director/

PS My health continues to decrease but I will make every parade if I just have to ride in a truck. Promote the Motor Cor. And ANTIOCH all you can.

CAR CLUB

By David Stamper, Director

Hello Nobles! Hopefully all are doing well as we are officially in summer!! Sorry I've been a little dormant for a bit with regards to publications. We are well into our parade season and THANK YOU to those who have participated in Miamisburg, Middletown, and Versailles parades so far! By the time you read this, hopefully we will also have had a great attendance at the Fairborn July 4th parade! I'd also like to thank the Nobles that came out and supported the Middletown Shrine Club Car Show and our Car Club's Dragon's Night Out!! (I indicated it's been a minute since I put out an article) I'd also like to thank this year's Divan for their support and for doing an awesome job so far this year! I've listed out some dates below for your viewing pleasure. We had a successful meeting in May; 1) Updated our bylaws, 2) Laid out some plans for our 21st Annual Car Show [snip of flyer below], and 3) Observed a moment of silence for the loss of Noble John Matteucci. Our next meeting in August (notice date change below) will be focused on wrapping up "to do's" for our Car Show. As a public service announcement - I do need updated Driver's License and Insurance info from any member planning to participate in any of the parades this year, that hasn't given me that yet.

Here are some of our important dates for 2025;

Car Club Meetings:

Tuesday August 5th
(moved due to Car Show)

Tuesday November 11th

All meetings are held at the Antioch Shrine Center, on the second Tuesday of the second month of each quarter, meaning only 4 per year typically. Please come join us if you have anything you would like to bring before the Car Club, would like to request anything of us, or you would like to join!!! All you need is to talk with one of us to get some details.

Remember to be safe out there. Please communicate if you are aware of any needs our Nobles or Brothers have. We don't know what the other person is going through so we should all be nice and help where we can. Thanks everyone!!

David Stamper – Director
Lee Edwards – President
Jim Smart – Vice President
Jamie Schenck – Treasurer

MIDDLETOWN SC

By Noble Chris Gibbs, President

The Middletown Shrine Club had an eventful month of June. We were proud to have been able to help support Camp Ytiliba at Camp Kern and donate the supplies for the cookout. The camp is composed of all former Shriner patients. Once we were finished serving dinner to all of the kids, they were so eager for us to sit down and join them. Their faces were filled with such overwhelming smiles of joy. Our club members all reported that this was just an incredibly heartwarming event. We were blessed with a great turnout this year at the car show, and we feel even more blessed to have been able to pass that success along. Middletown Shrine Club is very proud to have been able to make a $25,000 donation to cover the entire cost of the Camp for all of the kids in attendance this year! Through our constant devotion to charity, we got to experience firsthand the joys of Camp Ytiliba!

Next up for us is the Ride for the Shrine hosted by The Widows Sons Brazen Pillars, which will feature a concert by Former Cincinnati Reds Pitcher Bronson Arroyo and his very own The Bronson Arroyo Band.
