The Nobility Ball

May 3, 2025, Carillon Park

From the Potentate

Ill. Sir Bryan Ogletree

May has come and gone and Parade season is in full swing! Lady Amy and I are excited to get out into the communities with the clubs and units representing our amazing fraternity. We would also like to thank everyone who attended the Nobility Ball at Carillon park. It was a very special evening and a party that will never be forgotten. We have a few exciting events forthcoming. The first of which is being chaired by our Oriental Guide Leonard Broyles and First Ceremonial Master Zach Short. As we attempt to rebuild our membership rolls, we are having a Lodge master and Secretary Dinner on June 21st so we can share all of the fun and exciting things happening in and around our temple and hospital. Interesting fact as Zach crushed our membership numbers, 42% of Antioch's members are from just 11 lodges in our area. To say there is room for improvement is an understatement and something we can all address head on. This dinner should help open the doors for us to support our lodges and in turn gather support for Antioch.

A Strategic Planning Committee has also been assembled with members from the Foundation, Divan and the Nobility to help guide Antioch, its assets and facility well into the future. Speaking of the future the Sportsman's Raffle tickets are now available and flyers are at the temple for distribution. Let's keep this fundraiser at the top of mind as it continues to grow year over year. We look forward to seeing everyone soon!

FROM THE FIRST LADY, AMY

You know what time it is — our annual Martini Night is coming up on June 23rd at 6:00 p.m. Get your tickets on-line or by calling the office before June 17th. 📅 Get ready for a fun evening!

Lastly, don't forget to save the date for our Shrine Picnic on August 23rd at the Springfield Shrine Club — bring your favorite side dish to share.

Thank you all so much for your continued support and enthusiasm throughout this fun-filled year. Bryan and I truly appreciate each and every one of you! ❤️

Lady Amy is organizing an outing to LaComedia Dinner Theatre on July 12th to see Matilda! We're excited to share that one of our own will be taking the stage—Braya, daughter of 1st Ceremonial Zach Short and Lady Jena, will be performing as a member of the cast! We hope you will join us!

BOBBIE BITS

By: Noble Richard "They Make Me Write This" Marker, Secretary

Another meeting in the books, and as always, it was a thrilling mix of dignity, chaos, and mild public humiliation—mostly mine.

We kicked off the evening with the traditional opening prayer and Pledge, led by our ever-zealous Temple Chaplain, Matt McFarland. I'm pretty sure he dreams in scripture and speaks exclusively in ceremonial titles now. Honestly, if his fez gets any bigger, we may need to file a zoning permit.

Formalities followed, including me taking roll call in alphabetical order, which continues to drive Illustrious Sir Bob Wagner up the wall. That's precisely why I do it—consider it my monthly act of rebellion. And yes, for the record, I mispronounced Noble Scott Beirise's name on purpose. If you're going to rearrange the alphabet just for your last name, you have to live with the consequences.

In a shocking twist of consistency, I was prepared with the minutes of the last meeting—neatly printed and everything. Naturally, this meant the Bobbies refused to let me read them. If I hadn't prepared them, I'd have been tarred, feathered, and flogged with an apron.

Chaplain Matt (yep, him again) delivered the Treasurer's Report. Long story short: the fish fries were a greasy, glorious success! Between those, the 50/50s, the "Bundle of Joy" raffle (no babies were harmed), the shotgun drawing, and the bake sale, we actually made enough money to keep our aging Paddy Wagon and minibikes on life support for another year. Massive thanks to the Divan, kitchen crew, and front desk warriors who made it all happen. You are the real MVPs.

Now, onto communication. Apparently, we stink at it. This was agreed upon during a long, redundant (yet somehow still confusing) discussion on how to improve. We made vague promises to try harder. Spoiler: we probably won't.

We also endured a truly riveting conversation about t-shirt sizes. I wrote something about it. I have no memory of it. Let's move on.

Practice and maintenance days were set because, believe it or not, we have a title to defend. If you'd like to witness a miracle—or at least a decent attempt—reach out to any Bobbie and come join us. Or just hang out and pretend you're helping. We're cool with that.

No one was clumsy enough for the Klutz Award this time, but Noble Bob Sakal earned himself a DUITs badge for working the kitchen and just generally being a dependable mensch. If he were a tool, he'd be a Craftsman.

Also, hats off to Noble Charlie Anderson, who has officially accepted the prestigious position of Assistant Director, a title that guarantees nothing but headaches and a few extra texts from me. Charlie always shows up, steps up, and doesn't screw up. We're lucky to have him.

That's all for now, brothers. See you next time—same fez time, same fez channel.

We meet at Vandalia Range & Armory on Wednesday, June 18th. There is a 6:00pm "Annie Oakley Shoot" followed by the regular meeting at 7:00pm. Of course, no entry fee for our Annie Oakleys and we will have plenty of handguns and ammunition for them to have fun "plinking". There will be Range Safety Officers on hand to assist first-timers and help them feel comfortable. Vandalia Range RSO Noble Mike Jordan will be there on his day off to assist our Ladies. Refreshment Chairperson Lady Cherie Brenner will have a wonderful buffet spread for those coming early to shoot or just arriving for the stated meeting.

President Jim Free extends an open invitation to any Noble and his Lady to attend and maybe join up with the Gun Club.

The Antioch Shrine Parade season continues for the Provost Guard with the Versailles Poultry Day Parade on Saturday, June 14. Units report at 10:00am and Kickoff is 11:00am. The chicken dinner Afterglow sponsored by the Motor Corp. is in the tented area and run a little differently. Unit Directors supply names of those attending prior to the parade and their free tickets are handed out at the Staging Area.

Our other June parade is at the Imperial Session in Atlanta, Georgia on June the 29th. It is a 7:00pm evening parade on Peach St. in downtown Atlanta. Reminder: there is no Vandalia Air Show Parade on Friday, June 20th as the city has chosen instead to line the parade route with merchandise vendors and food trucks.

Pray for the safe return of all military personnel serving in harm's way and may God Bless America.

The Elissa Guild had a wonderful time participating at the first Purse Bingo with our bake sale and were able to sell all of our baked goods. We had our Imperial Visitation this month from the Imperial Council Shrine Guilds of America and as always had a wonderful time with the ladies visit. We had another wonderful opportunity to sell our baked goods at the Middletown Shrine Club Charity Car show. In June we will be planning a date to tour the Shriners Children's Ohio. Elissa welcomes all ladies to become a member and to have fun with us. For more information or to find out what our monthly donation item is, contact Samantha Marcum at sgrebs423@gmail.com

DARKE COUNTY SC

By Noble Ron C. Nischwitz Sr.,

A Little Light From The Darke.

The Darke County Shrine Club had a great dinner meeting on April 23, 2025. There were 20 Nobles, Ladies and guests in attendance. Entertainment was provided by Jared Walker.

The Darke County Shrine Club has been stepping up our aluminum can collecting efforts with social media posts which is yielding great success. We also hosted a second Aluminum Can Drive in Greenville on April 26th which was very successful again! We collect cans all year though too, 365 days!

Would you like to be a part of something BIGGER? Come out and join our Shrine Club and participate in some great fundraising activities and attend our meetings for an evening of fun, entertainment and fellowship! YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A DARKE COUNTY RESIDENT! WE EVEN HAVE MEMBERS IN OTHER STATES! We are actively reaching out to Mercer, Auglaize and Shelby Counties who used to have their own Shrine Clubs, but we welcome one and all! You can even come as a guest if you are not yet a Shriner. We'll be happy to have you and help you get started on your Shrine journey.

Below is a poem I wrote on April 23, 2025, and read at our monthly Dinner Meeting, which was my three-year anniversary of being raised as a Noble at Antioch Shrine by Illustrious Sir Gary Strawsburg. The Darke County Shrine Club requested I share it in the Crier. Anyone can feel free to share this poem in any manner that they wish.

SHRINERS A BROTHERHOOD WITH PURPOSE by Ron C. Nischwitz Sr. 4-23-25

Through the temple gates, of brotherhood,
A sacred path, is understood.
To don our Fez, to walk this way,
A Shriner's heart, shines bright each day.

Beneath the Fez, a promise made,
To serve, to heal, to lend our aid.
With every step, our journey grows,
A legacy, where kindness flows.

With hands that build, and hearts that heal,
A bond of service, strong as steel.
To aid a child, to ease their pain,
In their laughter, there is no greater gain.

For every life, that's touched and mended,
A legacy of love, is extended.
The blessings grow, the purpose clear,
As Shriners hold, our mission dear.

In the laughter of, a child's delight,
We find our purpose, burning bright.
Through noble acts, and hearts sincere,
We build a world, of hope and cheer.

The ties of brotherhood, we hold,
A bond unbroken, strong and bold.
Through trials faced, and triumphs shared,
A family built, a love declared.

The parades that march, the flags that wave,
Each step, a tribute, to the brave.
In fellowship, great joy we find,
A community, of heart and mind.

We march together, side by side,
With service and honor, as our guide.
A beacon shining, near and far,
A Shriner's light, the brightest star.

So raise the torch, let kindness blaze,
Through countless nights, and endless days.
For those who wear, the Fez's noble sign,
Are blessed by a mission, grand and divine.

The Middletown Shrine Club is extremely proud to have had yet another successful Mother's Day Car Show. Team FastTrax dropped in from above, skydiving into the event with "Old Glory" in tow to start off our day!

We were privileged to have the Shrine Legion of Honor on hand to post our colors. As well as we were honored to have this year's Potentate, Brian Ogletree, and Lady Amy present to show their unwavering support of our community and the Club.

The Vice-Mayor, Steve West, was in attendance to declare that it was "Shriners Charity Car Show Day" with a Proclamation from the Middletown City Mayor! The City of Middletown was well represented with the Local Police, Fire, SWAT, Mounted Patrol, and K-9 Divisions all on hand to show their support. We were also extremely proud to host one of our Shriner kids, Alana, to share her success story with us. She was presented with a Shrineasaurus Rex and a Shriners Teddy Bear. Alanna was our Special VIP Guest for the day!! We love you, Alana!! The 39th Annual Car Show had a record 247 cars entered. The Shrine Car Club provided their support again this year as our judges. We were blessed with a huge turnout from the whole community. Food trucks, DJ Rainman, games, and numerous vendors, fun was had by all!! the help of well over 80 Community Sponsors, we managed to raise over $35k. Great weather led to a great day for a great cause. Thank you to everyone who came out to give their support to the Middletown Shrine Club. As well as a big thank you to the City of Middletown and the Parks Division.
